

19 September 1960

Honorable Roger W. Jones
Executive Secretary
Distinguished Civilian Service Awards Board
Eight and F Streets, N.W.
Washington 25, D.C.

Dear Mr. Jones:

The Director of Central Intelligence has carefully considered Secretary Mitchell's invitation to nominate a candidate for the President's Award for Distinguished Federal Civilian Service and has decided that security considerations preclude our making a nomination at this time.

We appreciate being given the opportunity to participate in this program and hope that at some future time we will be in a position to nominate one of our members for this honor.

Sincerely,

/s/

L. K. White
Deputy Director
